Newport '69 to Showcase 30 Pop-Rock Super Stars

Headline acts Jimi Hendrix Experience, Creedance Clearwater Revival and The Rascals today had been set by producer Mark Robinson for the Newport '69 Pop Festival to be held June 20, 21 and 22 at Devonshire Downs in Northridge.

John Carpenter, Music Editor of the Los Angeles Free Press, who regularly broadcasts over radio stations KPFK and KRLA will act as master of ceremonies.

Opening night will feature Jimi Hendrix Experience with special guest stars Spirit. Other acts appearing on this evening include Albert King, Southwind, Taj Mahal, Joe Cocker, The Edwin Hawkins Singers, Ike and Tina Turner and Jerry Lauderdale.

On Saturday Creedance Clearwater Revival heads a bill which includes guest stars Steppenwolf, Buffalo Marie, Eric Burdon, Sweetwater, Love, Brenton Wood and Jethro Tull.

Highlighting the festival's Sunday program will be The Rascals, along with special guest star Johnny Winter.

Other artists slated for this program are Flock, Mother Earth, Booker T. and The MG's, Three Dog Night, The Grassroots, Marvin Gaye, The Byrds, The Chambers Brothers, and Poco as special guest stars of the Newport '69 Pop Festival.

Robinson, producer of the Newport '69 Pop Festival, said his organization was planning to "plant" more than 100,000 square feet of grass and 100 12-foot shade trees especially for the event.

DINO'S LODGE Acts in Review

CHEF Amando "Johnny" Janae prepares luncheon buffet fit for king daily at Queens Arms Restaurant in Encino.

Robert Coule's, Grant Griffin, a remarkably similar booming baritone, can easily fill the other slot.

Appearing in three shows nightly at Dino's Lodge, Griffin showcased his considerable talents in closing with "Aquarius" from the musical "Hair."

He gave a bounding vibrant rendition of the million seller which brought several people from the audience to dance out the closing bars.

Griffin shows a casual and complete command of his other offerings including "It's Not Unusual," "My Cup Runneth Over," "I Believe" and a sincere "For Once In My Life."

All were obviously chosen to showcase an excellent powerful voice that moves easily into the upper ranges.

It seemed that the relatively small size of Dino's inhibited Griffin's voice to a certain extent and he would be more comfortable in larger surroundings.

The Marty Harris Trio followed him smoothly through his quick change numbers and especially on his frequent forays into the audience.

mr. las vegas says Look for the Las Vegas should do it once again during unemployment rules to be practically all this summer. The recently opened Bonanza swelled employment up another 500 and with the completion of both the Landmark and the International hotels another 2000 will go to work. If you're a baker, a wine taster, a juggler of figures or a big (or little dealer) you got it made here... Norm Little, general manager of Little Caesars opposite the Dunes, tells me that they have 11,478 Christmas balls hanging from the ceiling at this spot... When you come to Vegas, you'll be able to take a flight to the moon. Count-down is right opposite the side entrance to Circus Circus... Popular funnymen, Pepper David and Tony Reese, are filling in a hold in the "Polis Berger" at the Trop. Pepper and Tony, partners for 20 years, are a welcome shot to an excellent production... Alan Lee, producer of several of the better mini-revues in town, such as "Filles de Soul," "Tokyo Holiday" and "Skin," would like to integrate his next micro-spectacular but is having difficulty finding a top female septa dancer. If you are one, rush to the nearest phone and call him at the Sahara.

FRANKIE LAINE at the Fremont, replete with trimmed whiskers, a new head piece and an act that will make you clamor for more, has a new song hit in "Dammit! Isn't God's Last Name."... Comedian Jay Lawrence opens the Fremont's Fiesta festivities with a fine act that should make him a LV regular. Jay was in the motion picture "Stalag 17".... "Pazz '70 And All That Jazz... Baby" is going full blast in rehearsal right now pointing toward a July 10 unveiling in the DI Crystal Room... Just think, less than five years ago Tom Jones was earning $36 a week as a mine laborer in his native Wales. The Britisher has created new records in audiences wherever he has appeared as he is doing right now at the Flamingo. Comedian Sammy Shore is Jones' special guest star... I like this sign of the times in front of the Griffith Methodist Church, here in Las Vegas. "You Can Get Ucers From Something You Hate."

THE SUMMER season is here. Lovely Parisian star Line Renaud relinquished the stellar "Casino de Paris" role to singing artist Rouvann — Jack Benny's favorite. Major Riddle, the Dunes Hotel prexy, made one promise to all the other strip hotel bosses. During Rouvann's singing engagement, for the next six months, at no time will all the front doors to the hotel be opened at the same time for fear that all of the neon lights will be shattered along the famed strip when the husky singer let's go with all he's got... Soul seems to be the Song at the Aladdin and Caesars Palace with Little Richard and Aretha Franklin blasting away at each hotel respectively. By contrast, "Minsky's Burlesque" completes the nights fare at the Aladdin and Red Fox at CP... The greatest clown of them all falls onto the Sands Copa Room stage tomorrow night for a short, two-weeker for his annual Vegas summer sojourn. Red Skelton has been breaking records at the hotel for the past nine years and LOCAL AUDITIONS TO BE CONDUCTED BY PLAYBOY CLUB Tomorrow and Thursday the Playboy Club will audition comedians and vocalists, scouting talent for the entire chain. Playboy Club International talent buyers are flying to Los Angeles from Chicago headquarters for the audition. Auditions, which will be by appointment only, are being coordinated by Sue Zan Jenkins. Personal managers and agents may reach Miss Jenkins, between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m., at 657-6050. Talent that is auditioned will be under consideration for bookings in Playboy Clubs around the country as well as at the Los Angeles Playboy Club.
