

Pop Festival Set In Denver

Over a quarter of a million dollars of talent will be presented at the Denver Pop Festival to be held at Mile High Stadium. The Festival begins on Friday, June 27 and continues through Sunday, June 29. The three-day festival is being produced by Barry Fey, President of Feyline Productions, Inc.

The following groups will perform: The Jimi Hendrix Experience; The Mothers of Invention; Sweetwater; Iron Butterfly; 3 Dog Night; Big Mama Thornton; Creedence Clearwater Revival; Tim Buckley; Crosby, Stills & Nash; Johnny Winter; Joe Cocker; Taj Mahal; Aum; Zephyr and the Rev. Cleophus Robinson.

Backstage will be such veterans of the Monterey and Miami Pop Festivals as Bill Hanley providing the sound system, and Chip Monck designing the lights. This promises to be a heavyweight production with the top stars in the pop field.

Hours for the Festival will be 5 p.m. to 12 Midnight all three days. Tickets for the event are $6 for one day and $15 for all three days. Checks or money orders for advance tickets should be sent to the Denver Pop Festival, Box 306, Denver, Colorado 80201.

The flying cube, in case anyone asks, is a new foldaway mini-case for a wig. It totes like a handbag. When not in use, it unsnaps, folds flat and is stashed. It comes complete with Lisa wig brush-comb and refillable flacon of special formula wig lustre.

HERE'S HOW YOU VOTED

By a big vote today, TOP VIEWERS rap NBC for removing "My Friend Tony" next fall. The new program, a midseason replacement show, is considered "superb," an all-age favorite, by our reader voters. It even outscores "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" (which NBC also abandoned but which ABC snapped up for showing next fall):

- My Friend Tony, NBC, 80.4, superb.
- The Ghost and Mrs. Muir, NBC 27.7, good.
- Jack Paar Africa Special, NBC, 69.6, fair.
- NBC Reports and Documentaries, 65.7, fair.
- Man and His Universe, ABC, 62.8, fair.
- Thursday Night Movies, CBS, 61.7, fair.
- NFL Action, CBS, 58.1, poor.
- Jose Feliciano special, NBC, 57.4, poor.
- Generation Gap, ABC, 54.3

poor.

Bill Dana special, NBC, 49.5, awful.

READERS SPEAK

THANK GOODNESS FOR RERUNS so we can catch up on the "My Friend Tony" series; it has been preempted more than any other program. How did it get a rating since it was not shown half the time? — Mr. and Mrs. F. Costello, Evansville, Inc. . . After the first show, I decided to watch it regularly—rather difficult to do when it's preempted 10 weeks in a row!—Barbara Schroeder, Colorado Springs, Colo.

CHOOSEY CHILDREN in our house (because TV is limited to an hour a day) select "Ghost and Mrs. Muir" for top viewing. It has a certain air and the characters are identifiable.—Mrs. R. H. Svendsen, Omaha, Nebr.

JOSE FELICIANO SPECIAL was outstanding, but why have Andy Williams and all those others on? Feliciano is the finest musician and entertainer. Our 3 little ones were entranced with this boy's performance. — Mrs. L. Rowan, Kansas City, Kans.

When voting below, please consider these Tuesday night movies as a whole: COME BACK LITTLE SHEBA, THE MIRACLE WORKER, FAHRENHEIT 451, ANY SECOND NOW, THE APPALOOSA, THE PERILS OF PAULINE, THE WHOLE WORLD IS WATCHING, THE YOUNG WARRIORS, SORRY, WRONG NUMBER, PRESCRIPTION: MURDER, NEVER ON SUNDAY, THE PINK PANTHER, and A HARD DAY'S NIGHT.

'TRIM'

In addition to flat ceramic tile pieces, American manufacturers produce many different "trim" units that turn corners, are rounded at the edges and give a neat, easy-to-maintain finish to any installation, says the Tile Council of America.
