

Mountain and Winter

An unusual concert. "Mountain" and "Johnny Winter and" are two hard-rock blues groups which have amassed a considerable following with almost no sales of single records. "Mountain" is powered by 290-pound Leslie West, above, and Felix Pappalardi, producer of The Cream's records.

Johnny Winter is the fantastic Texas blues guitarist who has a backup group consisting of (believe it or not) The McCoys. Don't worry; they've come a long way from their "Hang on Sloopy" days.

The two groups will each appear twice March 18 at Quinnipiac College in Hamden, at 8 and 11 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the University of Hartford Gen-gras Campus Center lounge Tuesdays and Thursdays; also by writing TKE, Box 902, Quinnipiac College, Hamden; 06518.
