CELEBRATING THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WOODSTOCK FESTIVAL

You've heard about it all summer. It's something that had to happen. Ten years after the greatest rock festival of the decade we are having a REUNION CONCERT. For over 10 hours on Saturday, September 8th, outdoors at beautiful Parr Meadows in Brookhaven, Long Island, many of the original stars of the Woodstock Festival will perform. Johnny Winter, Paul Butterfield, Rick Danko & Friends, Country Joe McDonald, and Canned Heat are now committed with more to be announced daily. Listen for lineup additions on

WNEW-FM, WABC-AM, WPLJ-FM, WLIR-FM, WBAB-FM, WGLI-AM, WXLO-FM.

Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 after September 4th. They're available at all  TICKETRON outlets (phone: 212-977-9020) and Music Warehouse Record Stores on Long Island. We're expecting quite a large crowd so to accomodate everyone we ask you to utilize car pools. Alcoholic beverages and camping are prohibited but there will be reasonably priced food and beverages available. Come join us — and celebrate again.
