Spotlight!

Honors and Winners

Pasadena High's Girl's League Cabinet selected Upbeat student advisor Cludy Chin as the November Girl of the Month in recognition of five semesters of outstanding service to the school and community. Cindy is editor of the Chronicle and active in the "S" Club, Auroras and Philanas, as well as being a song girl. Brenda Posey was the PHS October Girl of the Month, and Nancy Merrick won the honor in September.

Jessica Heinz, a John Muir junior, has been selected as the San Gabriel Valley Council Horizon Club delegate to the Camp Fire Girls regional conference slated for Hawaii in early April. Jessica has been in the Camp Fire program for nine years.

Rosemead High senior Alan Come and Alhambra High senior Timothy Thurkow were honored by Southern Califor-nia Edison Company recently "Distinguished Achievement in the Sciences." They received special award placques as the outstanding science scholar at their

Tom Price of Rosemead is Mark Keppel High's candidate Americans Abroad Summer Program of 1970, Tom is waiting for an announcement which could place him in one of 53 countries in Europe, South America or the

Among 26 Cal State Los Angeles students selected for inclusion in the 1969-70 edition organization, the . . . girl of month of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" are Karen Bice of Pasadena, Pam Duffy and Tony Weber of Alhambra, Roger Hudson of Arcadia, Anthony Fellow of El Monte, Robert Schwenoha of San Ga-briel, Judy Cassan of Rose-mead, and Marie Hegwer of Temple City.

CINDY CHIN

Five Albambra High students received cash awards as top ticket salesmen for the Matador Booster's Breakfast. Pat McFarlain, who sold over 200 tickets, raked in $20. Pam Bullock and Gilbert Gillespie received $15, Mitch Herdman won $10 and Chuey Woo took

An honorary girls' service "Z" Club,

Club of the Month at John Muir High this year. Chosen by representatives of the 31 clubs on campus. "Z" was selected on the basis of projects completed from the beginning of school through the end of October. Club officers include Margaret Bond, president; Patty Shigetomi, vice president; June Inuzuka, recording secretary: Nancy Hoggan corresponding secretary, and Joan Galley, treasurer.

Eleven John Muir High School students have been cited for their performance on the 1969 National Merit Scholastic Qualifying Test. Awarded semifinalist standing were Mathew Bowden, Elain Blowmeyer, Laura Easterling, Bruce Hall, Ted Ichine and Carol Shigetomi. Receiving letters of commendation were Margaret Bond, Barry Galef, Katherine Nelswanger, John T. Ornellas and Bernard P. Walp.

What's Happening

The senior class of La Canada High School will present "A Thurber Carnival," a series of short skits originated by humorist James Thurber, at Lanterman Auditorium Dec. 11-13. Show time will be 8 p.m. Reserved seats are $1.50, general admission $1. To reserve seats, contact the ASB office at La Canada High.

Pasadena City College Music Department will present a free concert Dec. 13 in Sexson Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. The Madrigals, Chamber Choir and Concert Choir will per-

Who's winning the battle of the hemlines: the mini, midi or maxi? Visitors to the Fall Fashion Show of Associated Women Students at Pasadena City College in the Student Center on Dec. 9 at noon may learn the answer. All are wel-

The second annual La Canada High School Associated Student Body Exchange Day will be held Dec. 9 and 10. Nine students from the sophomore, junior and senior classes will be visiting the campuses of Blair, South Pasadena and Beverly Hills high schools. Then, on Dec. 10, La Canada High will host nine come to this free event.

ADVISORY GROUP—Alternates and members of Superintendent Ralph Hornbeck's Student Advisory Council from Pasadena High, who discuss student affairs with the administration are (counterclockwise from foreground) Don Miyamoto, Tony Ortega, John Roberts, Cindy Chin, ter" on Columbia.

guitarists.

Sound Suggestions

A showcase for a former

Cream member's composing-performing talents is what

Jack Bruce's first solo LP

"Songs for a Tailor," dedicated to Bruce's late friend

Genie The Tailor, displays a vast range of song styles -from slow blues to loud hard

Backup music is excellent,

with Bruce playing plane, or-gan and bass, with a little help from friend George Harrison, credited on the album jacket as L'Angelo Misterioso.

Jack Bruce as a solo performer will attain fame and draw a large following, but he hasn't attained the pinnacle

he reached with the original

The Harlem Children's Chorus have put together a memorable holiday album,

Commonwealth United label.

Thirteen strong, the chorus

includes several superb soloists. In fact, the individual voices are so stylish that when the group sings in unison, the performance is quite

But the songs with solos -

and there are six of them - are fabulous. The kids add soul to Christmas carols, lifting many of them far above

the nonsense poem performance which many groups per-petrate. And this Christmas, ît's a little ensier to take

"peace on earth, good will to-wards men" from a talented

"We couldn't honestly give you more, and we didn't want to give you less, so here is exactly what we did in Nash-

Winter on his unusual three-

So comments Johnny

group of black kids.

'Christmas Time,

-MARSHA GRIFKA

Muir Upbeat Advisor

proves to be.

on guitar.

Cream.

rough.

Tom Housepian, Tam Elsaesser, Mimi Roberts, Allan Traylor, Walter Sturdivant, Linda Cooke, Josie de la Fuente, Tom Hernandez, Anita Tellez, Alan Hamane and Kam Kuwata. School principles are also present at monthly meetings of the student advisory council.

Arrest Your Doubts

Get It On With THE MAN

QUESTION: What can happen to you if you get caught shoplifting? L. L.

Lots of real grouvy things . . . Like these:

You get to have the shame of being caught. Usually the person that catches you waits until you are out of the store and then he grabs you. Everybody outside the store gets to see that and so do the people inside. He will take you by the arm back through the store to the office. If you're lucky, maybe some of your friends will see you. Or maybe some friends of your mom and dad may be in the store and take it all in. Pretty neat, huh?

Next... you will get a chance to "keep your mouth shut" and not admit you stole, like the bad guys on TV do, or you can have the fun of admitting to the store manager that you really are a thief. You can't imagine how much fun that is. Especially when there's no one around that thinks shoplifting is cool . . . just you and the store people and we know what they think, don't we?

More fun to come, so stick with us. Here come the policemen. You get to tell them what you did. They'll be proud of you, won't they? They'll be nice to you. They'll give you a nice ride down to the police station. If you're a nice sized teenager, they'll even put the handcuffs on you, behind your back. When you get to the police station, you'll be taken into the building where all the policemen work. They'll get to see you too. If they're interested, the man that brought you in will tell them that you are a real, live shoplifter.

Next, particularly if you act nice and tough, they might give you a bonus. For no extra charge you can have your fingerprints taken and your picture will be snapped on the same camera that's used to photograph real dope pushers, sex perverts and the like. While you're being booked (that's pretty big time) maybe a wino will be booked alongside you. We have two counters for fast service. Winos are neat people, unless you don't care to be near someone who has just vomit-

Unfortunately, unless you really act up, you won't be extended the privilege of a private room in the jail. They're swell, if you don't mind the smell. The reason you won't get the cell is that by that time, your good old mom and dad will have rushed down to the station to join in the fun. The policeman is obligated by law to let your folks know what's hap-

This is probably the best part. Just think how good it's going to feel when you look into those eyes.

First Mom's eyes... ladics first, remember? She'll be so proud. Just to think that you, her son or daughter, is being given so much attention by a nice big agency like the police

And Dad. You know the shine that'll be in his eyes. Fathers always seem to show their pleasure a little more outwardly than mothers do, don't they: He'll see you walking toward him between the two policemen, coming down that hall to meet him and, oh, we just know it'll be a gas.

Now that just covers a few things. The fringe benefits come later. The word will get out and your friends and their folks will probably hear about it. Think of how you'll be admired. And someday you'll apply for a job and you can give the police as a reference. Nothing like an arrest record to help you get that job you want. The recommendation never fades away, either. It'll stick with you through thick and thin. So it turns out to be more thin than thick. What do you care? That's the price one pays for all that glory, all that Did we answer your question? Hope so. Cause we want you to know how really groovy it can be, getting caught shoplifting . . . Any questions?

Young Life Presents 'Christian Message'

ments available to today's teen are the so-called character building organizations. One such group is Young Life.

Young Life is a process of pulling together the fragments of life around Jesus Christ as the permanent center," cording to a group official.
Approximately 600 high school tudents in the Pasadena area. belong to Young Life clubs, representing Blair, Muir, Pasa dena, Monrovia, Arcadia, South Pasadena and San Marino high schools.

Non-sectarian but pron-ouncedly Christian, the clubs meet once weekly at members homes. Lasting one hour, the meetings include "singing and fun," plans for future activities, and a short talk about who Jesus Christ is, and what He can mean to life.

Mary Stam, secretary to the Young Life regional director. says the meetings "present the Christian message. They strive to understand what Christ is saving."

Clubs are led by staff mem-bers or qualified local lead-ers. The organization is supported by donations from churches, businesses and individuals.

In the summer months thousands of Young Lifers spend a week at one of five camps, four of which are in the Rockies. Staff members at the camps attempt to explain the Bible's answers to modern life, with emphasis on Jesus and His teachings.

Miss Stam reports that

Drug Pamphlets Offered

This article is the last in a series on drugs based on scientific information from the National Institute of

The National Institute of Mental Health has recently published a series of four factual easy-to-read leaflets on drugs which are being made available to anyone who

The leaflets are "Mari-juana," "LSD," "Narcotics" and "The Up and Down

A free, single copy of each may be obtained by writing to

National Institute of Mental Health, Box 1080, Washington,

These leaflets attempt to answer some of the most frequently asked questions surrounding the use of marijuana, LSD, amphetamines,

Many of the questions about drugs that young people may bring up to their parents will be found answered in the se-

As authorities are well

can themselves bring aware, neither laws nor knowledge of the medical

about the prevention of drug

It is not so much the total phenomenon of the great use of drugs in America today that bears investigation. Rather it is the misuse and abuse

The major harm and the greatest dangers come through the improper taking of drugs, not their proper uti-

of drugs, particularly the more powerful mind-affecting compounds mentioned here, that we are campaigning. It is not to prevent the appropriate, often vital, usage of drugs, but only their abuse and misuse, that medical, scientific, and educational ef-

It is toward understanding barbiturates, and narcotics.

Mental Health.

wants them.

Drugs."

D.C. 20013.

abuse.

of drugs.

lization.

Both Winter's voice and guitar groan, grunt, shriek and roar through an electrifying serving of blues tunes, many written by Winter himself. If there was any doubt, "Second Winter" brilliantly demonstrates that Winter is in a class by himself among blues side offering, "Second Win-

If you like it fast, wild and heavy, this is your album.

Aum, a group who hit it big at the Fillmore and have just released their first album, "Resurrection," on the Fillmore label, offer an unusual and enjoyable variety of

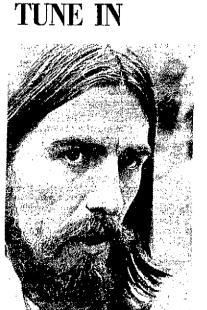

Ranging from ballardry to rock, the group strikes a surrealistic religious note at the album's onset with "God is Back in Town," following up with the beautiful title song "Resurrection." This soft be ginning dissolves into the can-alized havoc of "Bye Bye Baby," but returns in "Aum," a mystic ode to universals.

Aum is one of those groups who might make it big with a hit single, but in the meantime, they're worth discovering on your own.

In "Nashville Zodiac," Billy Edd Wheeler combines country crooning with country burlesquing. It is obvious that he doesn't take his style completely seriously when the album begins with "The Interstate is Coming through my Outhouse." Mixed in with othtunes are digs at Dixie, particularly racism.

Several of the songs, though, are pure pone, so if you have no tang for twang, forgit it. However, if you dig country but wouldn't want to live there, this United Artists LP may be your bag.

-TOM LIVINGSTON forts are aimed.

GEORGE HARRISON

The thing about The Beatles is that they move. They're always doing something writing, experimenting with sounds, diversilying. Their luck is awfully good too. Right along with the release of their latest album, "Abbey Road," and in time to push sales, came the untrue story of Paul McCartney's death. What is true is that the Beatles have two big bits on the singles charts. Last week we gave you "Come Together" and now here's "Something," which was written by George Harrison alone.

Congright 1969 HARRISONGS MUSIC. INC. Written by George Harrison. Used by Permission. All Rights Reserved. In-

> Words and Music by GEORGE HARRISON

. . Apple Some - where in her smile she knows that I don't need no D9 F E6 6 A Some - where in her smile she knows that a continued to continue of the - or lov - or, Some - thing in her style that shows me. I don't want to leave her now, Amility Ain?

Some - where in her smile she knows me. I don't want to leave her now, Amility Ain?

Film D S A A A Amoj?

Will my love grow. I don't know, I don't know. You stick a - round now, Film A D S Key of C C C

It may show, I don't know, I don't know. Some - thing in the way she knows Cnoi? C?

And all I have to do is think of her, Some - thing in the things she shows make the shows the shows make the shows An An(#7) Am7 is don't want to keave her now. You know I be show and how.

(c) 1989 Spadea Syndicate, Inc. Ali Rights Reserved.

Something

What's your current favorite? Send requests to the Tune In Editor of this news-ternational Copyright Secured.

TOP SCIENCE STUDENTS-Among 148 outstanding science students in Southern California awarded the Science Medallion Award ander the sponsorship of the Southern California Industry-Education Council are, top, from left, Kenneth Melickan, Blair High School; Carol Talk-

ington, South Pasadena High School; Robert Phillips. (Pacific Telephone Company); Christine Stafford, Flintridge Sacred Heart Academy; Anita Bennet, $1, Andrew's High School, Bottom, from left, Kent D. Taylor, Pasadena High School and John Hornby, St. Francis High School.

structive two-way friendships with teens "groping toward maturity." Staff members must be seminary graduates, or must complete the pro-gram for a Master of Arts degree in theology offered by the Young Life Institute at Fountain Valley School in Col-Further information about the organization may be obtained from the Young Life Campaign, 465 E. Union, room 202, Pasadena 91101, 449-3143.

Among the diverse allure- many Young Life alumni have gone on to careers in the ministry. She said that Pasadena's Fuller Theological Seminary alone has at least 13

Young Life "products."

Another of Young Life's goals is to build leaders willing and able to develop con-

